Day 1 - A leisurely 9:00 AM departure on the first leg of our exciting Cruise Tour to Atlantic Canada. Today we'll visit charming Kennebunkport and shop in the little village by the sea. In Portland there will be time to explore the scenic waterfront and DINNER will be included at DeMillo's famous floating ship restaurant. Later we board the new cruise ship called Nova Star. Everyone will have private cabins on the overnight cruise to Nova Scotia. Plus there's a restaurant, cocktail lounge and casino.

Day 2 - BREAKFAST is included on the Nova Star as we cruise into picturesque Yarmouth, the gateway to Atlantic Canada. Our Nova Scotia Guide will be waiting for our arrival in Yarmouth and today our route will take us along the Eastern Coast of Nova Scotia. There will be special sightseeing stops in Lunenburg, home of the famous Canadian sailing ship Bluenose and also in Peggy's Cove with its lonely lighthouse and quaint shops as the edge of the sea. Our destination is Halifax for two nights at the Lord Nelson Hotel. The Lord Nelson is located in the heart of the city across from the beautiful Public Gardens. This evening DINNER will be included at a harborfront restaurant.

Day 3 - A Halifax City Tour this morning conducted by a guide in kilts. What else would you expect in Nova Scotia. During our tour we'll visit the historic Citadel Fortress Museums. Today's featured attraction is the 2015 Royal Nova Scotia International Tattoo. This is the largest annual indoor show in the world with over 800 performers. What a spectacle. It's patriotic, it's colorful, it's Royal Canadian from start to finish. Another evening at the historic Lord Nelson Hotel.

Day 4 - Across the Province of Nova Scotia is the ferry port called Caribou where the boat leaves for the 90 minute crossing of the Straits of Northumberland to Prince Edward Island. The Canadians simply call it PEI, Canada's smallest and certainly its greenest province. It's said there are over 50 shades of natural green on this pretty island. Spend two nights at the Hotel Charlottetown in the heart of the Island's Capital City. A PEI LOBSTER DINNER is included on the wharf tonight. Charlottetown is ideal for walking and exploring and our hotel has a perfect location.

Day 5 - BREAKFAST at the hotel and a free morning in Charlottetown. This afternoon a local island guide will take us to the historic home of Anne of Green Gables and the Prince Edward Island National Seashore on the Gulf of St. Lawrence. In Cavendish you'll learn all about famous Prince Edward island oysters and another Lobster DINNER awaits at Fisherman's Wharf in North Rustico.

Day 6 - After BREAKFAST we'll cross the Confederation Bridge from Prince Edward Island to Cape Tormentine, New Brunswick. This ocean bridge is an engineering marvel. Our travels will take us through Saint John and along the Fundy Coast to Calais, Maine. Stop at the Duty Free Shop before continuing to Bangor and the Holiday Inn. DINNER is included in Bangor tonight.

Day 7 - BREAKFAST in Bangor and today we'll stop in picturesque Boothbay Harbor in Midcoast Maine. Boothbay Harbor is filled with little shops and inviting restaurants. This afternoon sit back and reminisce with friends and fellow travelers about all the interesting places we've been and the things we've seen in Maine and Atlantic Canada. Return home about 6:30 PM.
